

Classic and Clubman's Round 2
Crystal Palace 37-38, Three Rivers, 6-min per lane.

ERA returns to its happy hunting ground with three of its A and B type cars. Team Leader Mr Allan Inwood in a light blue car, Mr John Rees with a dark blue version and Mr Dave Sykes in the team light green colours. Giovanni Teteleone was their only challenger with a little Alfetta. The Paddock was unfortunately empty of Mr Monkman's MG race tuned road car due to a rotten streaming cold.

As the flag of the Union dropped Mr Inwood got away with both Mr Sykes and Giovanni for company all three cars challenging for the race lead in an intense battle. Mr Rees stalked the front three.

The pace took its toll as an encounter with the kerbs saw the green ERA damage its axel and fall away. The pace was also too hot for the Alfetta, its engine not being fully sorted let go and left a fuming Giovanni in the pits. Fortunately, he was able to commandeer a Maserati his Italian blood hot he rushed out to give chase.

Giovanni set off with some haste and much hand waving, but his fire saw the little Maserati pull back on the ERAs and back into contention with Mr Inwood. This frustrated dynamo however did cause some confusion at a pit stop when Giovanni jumped aboard Mr Rees ERA and set off only to realise his mistake seconds later leaping from the car and storming to his Maserati to the smirks of both sets of mechanics.

As the Race wore on Mr Rees pace increased and he began to trouble Mr Sykes whose axel was temperamental to say the least.

At the flag Mr Inwood held the honours for ERA followed by the Maserati of Teteleone.
